Dinning out in Gibraltar

We love our couples so much and we really want them to have such a wonderful time during their stay in Gibraltar that we went and we ate in almost all of the 228 restaurants there... Well not nearly all of them, but enough! So here is our list of a few that we would recommend. It has to also be said that the service in all of the restaurants was amazing, everyone was so friendly and helpful and also something to note (as we have a gluten intolerant) that the selection of foods for all intolerances in most of the restaurants was amazing. We do recommend that you book ahead, especially for Saturday and Sunday lunchtime, bookings can be made in most places on the phone or by email.

So here is our list of top restaurants, in no particular order

MONS CALPE

We dined in the Mons Calpe Suite which is perfectly located at the top of the rock, 426 meters above sea level. Whilst here, we enjoyed some wonderful food, whilst looking out over the sights of Gibraltar, Spain and Africa. This stunning circular restaurant is also a wedding venue,, that provides couples an exciting opportunity to exchange their wedding venues in style. This stunning circle restaurant also makes the perfect wedding venue for couples who want a unique wedding. The circular glass building, which offers panoramic views can accommodate small weddings of upto 6 guests in the conservatory area and upto 60 guests in the main suite. Although, no matter how big or small your wedding party is, it is safe to say that the Mons Calpe Suite will offer you a special day that none of you will ever forget! Contact the Mons Calpe Suite to book.

Bianca's is a Mediterranean themed restaurant and bar that is perfectly located on the Ocean Village marina. Here we got to sample some amazing, freshly prepared food and enjoyed their friendly service whilst relaxing in the lively atmosphere that is present throughout the village. Reservations at Bianca's are recommended but not always necessary.

Business Hours:
8.30am – 11pm every day

Takes its name from the bombproof barracks that were built in 1817. You can find the lively square that is strategically positioned at the southern end of Main Street, which is the heart of Gibraltar's popular shopping district. Here we walked around to view the many alfresco restaurants, cafes and bars, before stopping for lunch. The atmospheric square is used to host many events ranging from military parades, National Day celebrations and parties. If you are looking for somewhere to dine in Casemates Square, check out the list of restaurants that we would recommend:- Aquaterra, The Little Rock Restaurant and Bar, Latinos Restaurant, The Tunnel Restaurant, The Rock Fish and Chips After Casemates Square there is another area called Queensway Quay that is a stunning Quay area with gorgeous boats docked and it is always so calm and tranquil. Here there are a number of restaurants to try..

Rendezvous

CHARGRILL

10 Queensway Quay, Gibraltar GX11 1AA, Gibraltar

We strolled down to the Queensway Quay to dine at the very popular

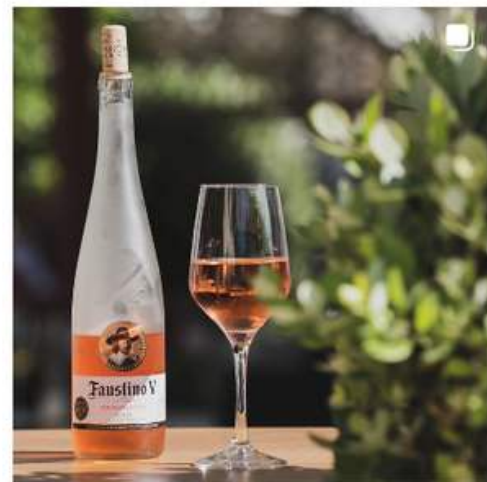

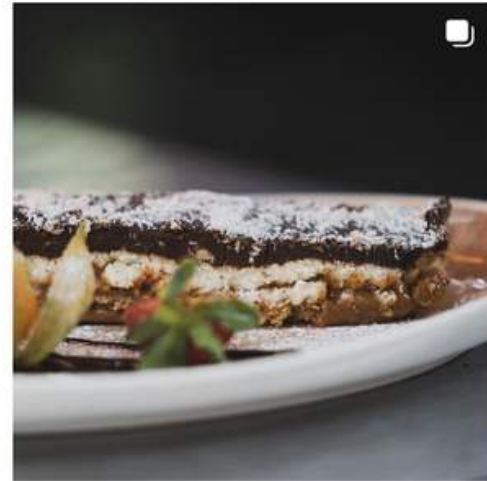

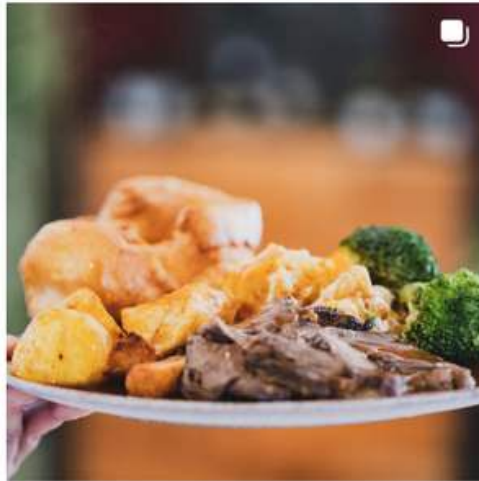

Rendezvous restaurant. Rendezvous is perfectly situated next to the Queensway Quay Marina, so you can dine alfresco whilst marvelling over the many incredible boats that are moored there. The food at Rendezvous is cooked using an authentic charcoal oven which they call 'Big Bertha', which gives it an authentic chargrill taste. We opted to share a lamb dish which serves two, but if you aren't a meat eater, then don't worry they have a great vegetarian and vegan menu available. The food there is delicious and we highly recommend that you pay it a visit! Rendezvous also offers a small section of the restaurant to wedding parties, who wish to exchange their vows and dine afterwards. Their main conservatory area opens up to a large outdoor terrace on the water's edge, and they can also offer a separate lounge area at the rear of the restaurant for smaller wedding ceremonies.

THE LOUNGE BAR & LOUNGE GASTRO BAR

Whilst we were at the Queensway Quay, we popped into The Lounge restaurant to meet their friendly staff and take a sneak peak at their glorious wedding room at the back of the restaurant.

This amazing restaurant and wedding venue offers high quality, freshly prepared food and drink to couples who wish to have their special day in an intimate ceremony and is the perfect venue for those who wish to escape the hustle and bustle of the main streets of Gibraltar. The wedding room is simply beautiful, complete with intricate touches that give it a romantic feel.

Moniques

BISTRO & CAFÉ

After a leisurely stroll around the many shops, we decided to dine at Monique's Bistro for a spot of lunch. Monique's is also located on the Queensway Quay (you can tell we liked it there). Our lunch was amazing, which offered a laid back atmosphere and a great ambiance. Their menu offers something for everyone and is especially famous for their Sunday roasts!

Couples can have their wedding ceremonies here, which are held in their beautiful air-conditioned, glass conservatory that overlooks the Marina.
